IRONSIDES

1993

Our high school years,
have been the best.
Putting our minds
and bodies to the test.

And now, as we wait
for our graduation day, We'll never forget
the jokes we used to play.

We've been excited,
sad, frustrated and scared.
All these emotions together we've shared.

But still there is so much that we have to do,
If you give me a hand
I'm sure to help you—
Make the right choices.

There's no time for regrets.
Life is too short,
don't you ever forget.

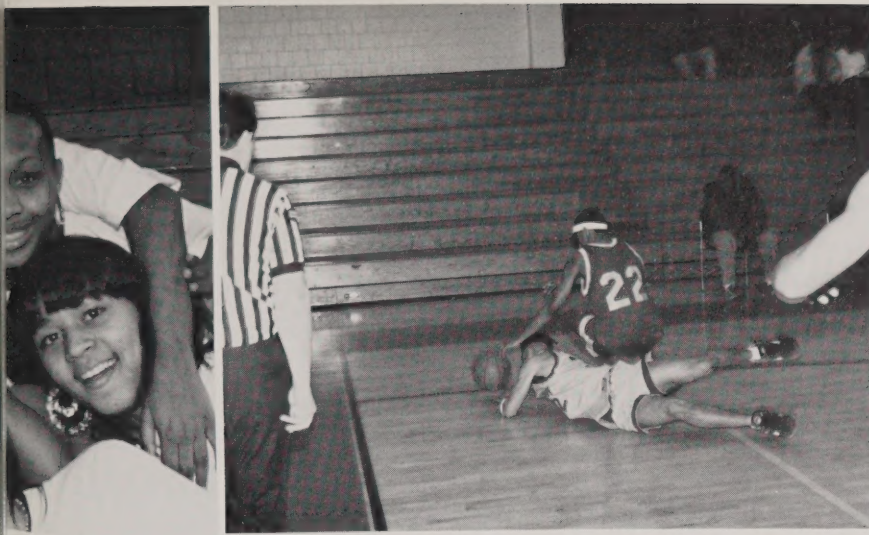

I'm waving good-bye
with one last thing to say, That the beginning of our tomorrow starts now—today.

It's time to wake up;
give our actions some thought.
Make change for the better,
before we find ourselves caught.

The message, our yearbook is trying to send,
Is that lost time
is never found again ...

INTRODUCTION TIME...

Get ready to walk through the halls of Charlestown High as you flip through the pages of this book. After twelve years of waiting, SENIORS AT LAST, with our jeans hangin' baggy and our oversized shirts. We could have sworn that with our new status, we finally "rule the school".....WRONG!!!. And Val sure let us know.

So we all go to every class, everyday for the rest of the year. RIGHT! (Yeah, right). What we really do is cut and then play it off. So we all head down to the basement and leave out that door. Next, we kick to the nearest sub shop with 94.5 WZOU playing in our headphones. Then we're off to catch the 93 bus to hang-out Downtown. We're scoring like Jordan and chillin' all day until its time to go bak to $kool, and whenever we see a cut slip our hearts skip a beat. The loud speaker makes us jump an extra mile, and we seem to bump into Val all over the place!

I guess its all part of Senioritis along with college applications and planning for our future. But no matter what our status we were never satisfied. As freshmen, we were intimidated by the upperclassmen. As sophomores, we realized how foul being a freshmen was. As juniors, we were stuck in the middle, and now as seniors we understand that we spent too much time complaining because we discovered that "Lost time is never found again."

Now as we're reaching the end of the road and are about to step into the "real world". Some of us wish we were back in elementary so that these new responsibilities can be escaped, and some of us are eager and ecstatic about growing up. Since yesterday is gone and tomorrow is not yet here, we have to take time out to worry about today. What we have already done cannot be changed but what we do now can and will change tomorrow.

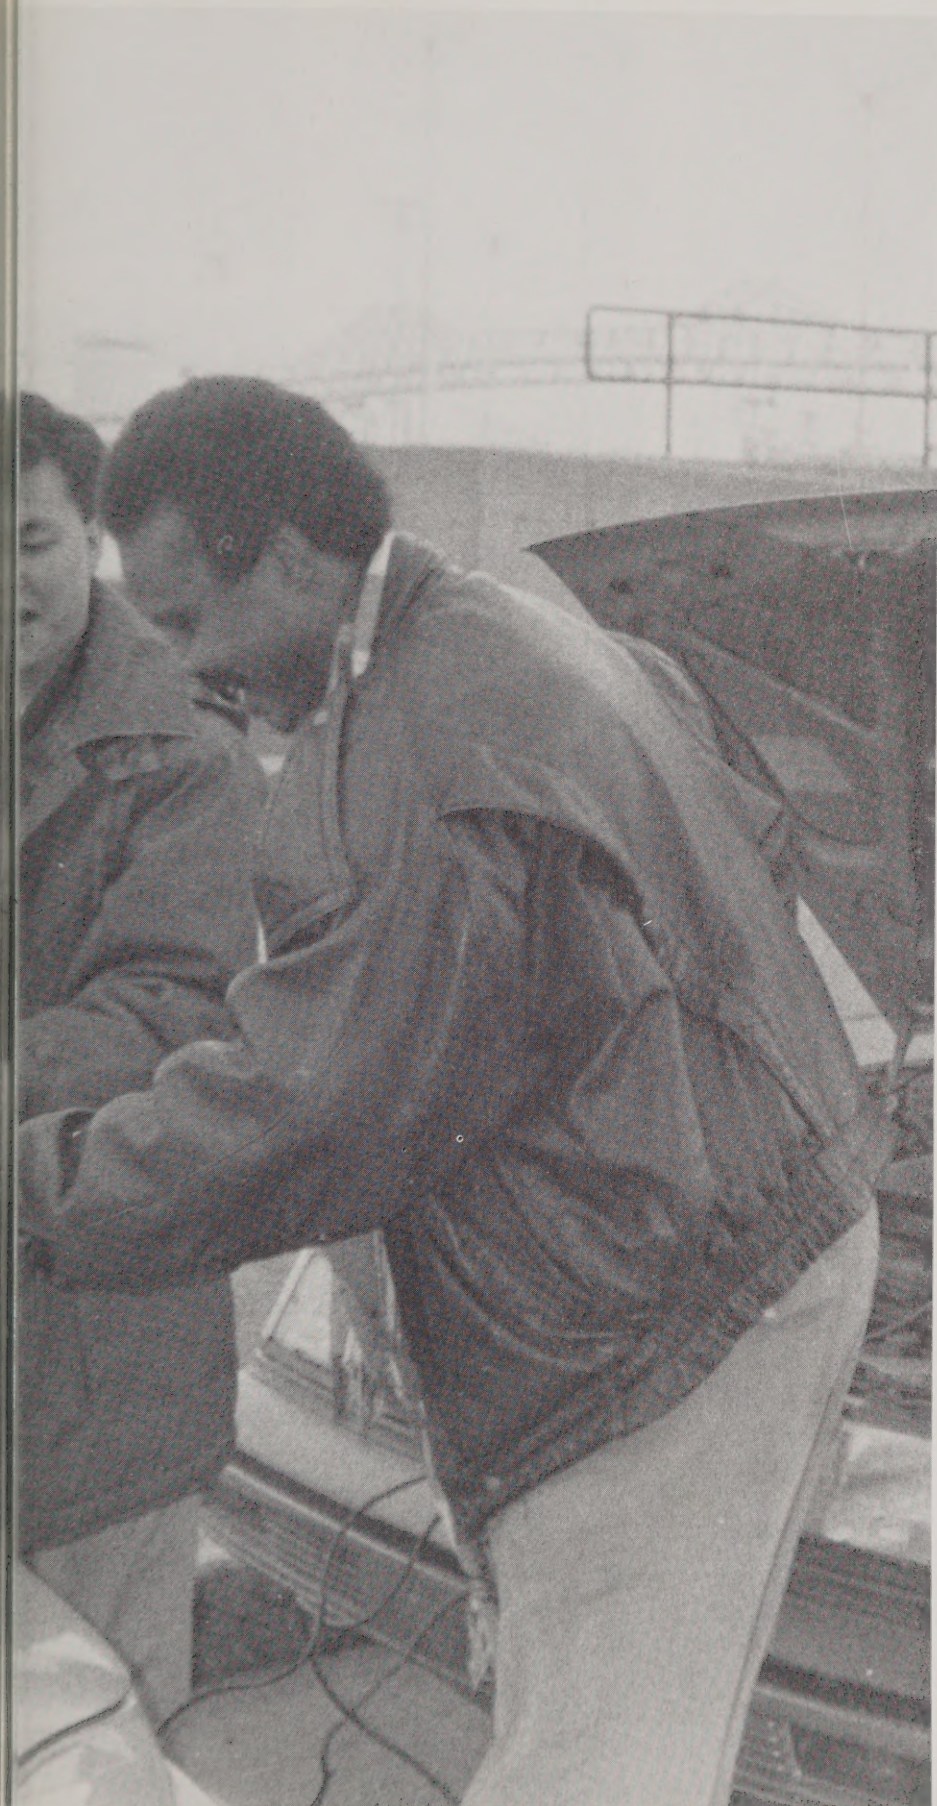

Twenty years from now,(half an hour before our class reunion),we will pull this book out of the dusty box in the attic and looking through it we will laugh at our clothes and the slang in the first few paragraphs. Many of us will feel nostalgic but proud of all that we have accomplished. Others will turn the pages very slowly with tears of regret in their eyes, wishing they could have one more chance to go back to the past. Once awakened from daydreaming, it will finally be understood, although too late, the true meaning of our theme, "LOST TIME IS NEVER FOUND AGAIN".

C.H.S. MAKES THE PLAYOFFS...

Coach John Morris did a wonderful job with the hockey team this year. Goaltender Dan Dollosa helped seniors Jimmy Gilen and Pat Owens on the defense. The front line was terrific with Billy Lynch, Joshua Smith, and Keith Wallace leading the team in scoring. Charlestown made it to the quarter-finals in the State tournament, but fell short to Lynnfield 7-5. The Townies will lose 5 seniors this year, but returning are juniors Keith Wallace, Danny Dollosa, and Tom Donovan to make up the first line, and Jason Messina will play goal.

Seniors go out in Style! ...

The C.H.S. soccer team had another successful season, 8W-4L! Coach Welch was very satisfied with the overall season. In a conversation with him, he stated, "I would have loved to have won one of those three games we lost to Madison Park, but we did the best that we could".

Although the team will lose six seniors including M.V.P. Juan Ortiz, Coach Welch just hopes next year's team will try their hardest. He also stated that Miguel Alvarado was the team's most consistent player and Rafael Henriquez was most improved, but everyone played his best.
